DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Johnson et al. (U.S. 6,278,049).

See Figures 8 and 9, and col. 12, line 60 and col. 14, line

10. The reference teaches metallic circuit lines in outer layers with blind via elements 239, in intermediate layers under the metallic circuit lines.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Johnson et al. (U.S. 6,278,049 B1).

The reference teaches via (element 239) in greensheets but does not specify a particular size range. The instant invention claims a via diameter in the 100 to 500 micron range. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have sized the pores of Johnson et al. to provide the desired heat insulation and remain open during lamination of the green sheets because of the teachings of Johnson to form the openings before lamination.

5. Applicant's arguments filed 09 May 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Johnson et al. does not show the air cavities or blind via of Johnson et al as being aligned between the conductive elements of Johnson et al. The examiner disagrees. Figure 9d shows that either element 5 or element 6 may alternate between the edges of adjacent stacked layers in cross section. Col. 13, lines 44-45 recite that the via are between elements 5 and 6. Thus the via would be aligned with elements 5 and 6 in adjacent layers. Regarding the preamble language of an RF module, it not seen what additional structure this contributes as the air space for thermal insulation also has a different dielectric value than the ceramic of the substrate.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
